A Special Tribute to the Class of 2024: The Class Gift

For many years at commencement, members of Columbia Law School's graduating class presented a gift to the Law School as they moved from students to alumni—a tradition since the late 1990s to support the students who follow in their footsteps.

Beginning in 2020, due to the impact of the pandemic, a new tradition emerged. For the past four years, select alumni have designated their giving in honor of the graduating class.

Inspired by the opportunity to “pass the baton to the next generation,” Columbia Law School alumnus Matthew R. Kipp '89, along with his wife, Susan, made a gift in honor of the graduating Class of 2024. Student support is central to Matthew and Susan's generosity to the Law School. And Matthew looks forward to celebrating future reunions with this graduating class.

This gift will help the Dean meet the needs of Columbia Law students.

From the Office of Development and Alumni Relations

Dear Members of the Class of 2024,

Today, as you graduate from Columbia Law School, you become part of a community of accomplished leaders that spans the globe.

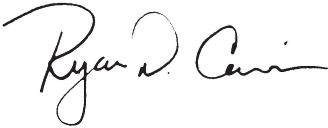

With over 30,000 alumni across sectors and industries worldwide, our network is a testament to talent, diversity, and active engagement—a resource of invaluable guidance and support as you embark on your career and life beyond Columbia.

There are many ways to stay involved with the Law School community. Whether through mentoring future students and graduates; volunteering for class reunion festivities; participating on alumni boards, councils, and committees; giving back as donors; or contributing as guest speakers and instructors, your engagement enriches our collective experience.

I encourage you to foster personal connections in person at alumni events or virtually through Columbia LawLink (lawlink.law.columbia.edu), our networking platform. Our Development and Alumni Relations team looks forward to welcoming you and offering you guidance as you become the newest members of the Columbia Law School alumni community.

Congratulations on reaching this impressive milestone. Your dedication and hard work have brought you to this moment, and we eagerly anticipate learning of your future successes.

Best wishes,

From the Columbia Law School Association

Dear Members of the Class of 2024,

Congratulations on graduating from Columbia Law School! We are thrilled to welcome you as the newest members of the Columbia Law School Association.

In the decades to come, you and your classmates will enjoy many accomplishments in the legal world and beyond. No matter where your life and career take you, you will always share a special bond. The three years I spent at Columbia Law gave rise to friendships with classmates and faculty that I still cherish 35 years later.

Our alumni community gives back to the Law School in so many ways, including as mentors, moot court judges, adjuncts, and advisers, and also by employing many of our graduates. A key part of our mission at the association is to nurture your relationships with fellow Columbia Law alumni. I hope you will join us for events, share personal and professional updates, and consider serving on our board someday.

Being a member of the Columbia Law family has been a fulfilling part of my life. I hope in the years to come, you will feel the same way.

Sincerely,

G. Wade Leak '89
President, Columbia Law School Association Board of Directors
